Does the Christian faith have scientific evidence this is difficult to believe however since DNA was discovered we now understand the entire DNA coding sequence of humans is consistent and the difference is only one thousandth the theory of mathematics probability tells us that it could not be the result of spontaneous generation therefore the molecular biologist put forward that people of the whole world have the common grandfather Y chromosome Adam theory and the common grandmother Eve theory do you agree what is amazing is that there is no difference between man's and woman's 2.9 billion chromosomal DNA coding sequence meaning that human DNA coding is from one individual only men have the complete set of the chromosome so the source individual must be a man and the first woman was from the man the first man had no carnal parents and it only could be Adam created by God due to the constancy of biological genome DNA coding it is impossible for any species to have an evolution connection not even microevolution this is what is recorded in the Bible as all living from each category it therefore can be seen that life's DNA coding sequence is from God's creation from our DNA we could see that all the substances and lives in the universe are created by God these scientific facts are totally consistent with the biblical record and are objective evidence of the Christian faith

Excerpt from King Edward VII as a man and monarch a memorial address Puritans and Cavaliers there was engendered an estrangement which continued to a certain extent for over a century as the heritage of a family feud and there have been occasions when this estrangement blazed forth into demonstrations of actual hostility the original quarrel was that of english man against englishman of the refusal of the stay at home brother to concede to the brother who had come across the seas to found a new england the rights and privileges which were undisputably his in the old mother land that there should be no taxation without representation it was the proverbial story of a family quarrel which is notoriously generally more bitter than one between strangers and for centuries the race had established a reputation not only of being splendid fighters but of being self opinionated and stiff necked and once having taken up a quarrel these british and american kins men both of the same blood and of the same ideas of liberty not only stubbornly fought it out but neither side was in a particular hurry to fall over the neck of the other and pretend that they were as long lost brothers then each was too busy with his own affairs to bother much about matters of sentiment outside concerns of present moment the american had a wilderness more than the third of a continent to subdue the britisher went forth and commenced anew to build up his empire and contrary to prophecies when the american colonies established their independence the british again now occupies over a far greater extent of territory than in the fateful year of 1776 about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
