bronislaw malinowski 1884 1942 was a wide ranging thinker whose ideas affected almost every branch of the social sciences and nowhere is this impact more evident or more persistent than on the study of myth ritual and religion he articulated as never before or since a program of seeing myths as part of the functional pragmatic or performed dimension of culture that is as part of activities that did certain tasks for particular human communities spanning his entire career this anthology brings together for the first time the important texts from his work on myth ivan strenski s introduction places malinowski in his intellectual world and traces his evolving conception of mythology as strenski points out malinowski was a pioneer in applying the lessons of psychoanalysis to the study of culture while at the same time he attempted to correct the generalizations of psychoanalysis with the cross cultural researches of ethnology with his growing interest in psychoanalysis came a conviction that myths performed essential cultural tasks in chartering all sort of human institutions and practices originally published in 1992 the princeton legacy library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of princeton university press these editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions the goal of the princeton legacy library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by princeton university press since its founding in 1905

is jesus mythological and is he a mere product of his cultural milieu through narratological and social scientific analysis of the gospel account barber systematically demonstrates that there are two opposing patterns structuring the gospel the first is the pattern of this world which is the combat myth with a typical sequence of motifs having mythological meanings it is lived out by everyone else in the accounts except jesus because this pattern of the world is the pattern of myth culture which is the pattern of the old adam and sin nature the pattern of jesus is the pattern intended for adam to walk in and is the unique pattern of the new adam jesus christ jesus s pattern inverts the sequence and subverts the significance of each and every motif and episode of the myth culture s pattern barber shows that jesus s failure to conform to this world s mythological pattern establishes that he is not mythological and not a product of his culture as the apostle peter states we did not follow cleverly devised tales myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our lord jesus christ but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty 2 pet 1 16
