excerpt from the progressive road to reading introductory book four the paramount necessity in the teaching of reading to children is to secure and at the same time to sustain the pupil's active interest in the content of the story material being read to this end the thought must be couched as largely as possible in language that is simple direct forceful and dramatic the child mind does not easily tolerate side incidents in any story for him these are vain digressions because they have no direct bearing on the course of events every experienced story teller has learned to know that for the child a story must run straight and true and that it must speedily reach its goal there must be a hero or a heroine a complex situation leading to a climax and a happy solution of the problem nothing more is needed nothing less will do about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works we offer the easiest way to make reading books with children a pleasure even for those children who listen to reading reluctantly with the usual type of reading a child is a passive listener while with reading by picture he or she becomes an active participant even if children can already read they are happy to read texts where some of the words are replaced by pictures and perceive it as a bonus or a prize it is more important to receive such bonuses for children who are just starting to read or for whom reading still requires effort a small child can only voice words represented by pictures this reading not only makes kids a full participant in the process but also teaches them to reconcile the words of the picture with other words in the sentence older children may try to read words from a vocabulary list that appears before the text a child who has begun to read will be able to enjoy reading the entire text if you are reading to your little one please read slowly let your child think about the sentence find the right word and enjoy the reading process some words in this book are changed to pictures each story has a pictured vocabulary list at the beginning the book includes 3 famous fairy tales the wolf and the goldilocks and the three bears and the gingerbread man great book for non english speaking children to learn and remember new words in a fun game based reading activity
