what or where is the place of faith is it a physical location no it is where we are when we step out into the unknown in blind yet obedient faith because that is all that is we have left our christian vocabulary is filled with ideas quotes and even promises from god that are meant for our comfort and reassurance as real as god s word is what happens when all has been recalled and rehearsed and we still find ourselves alone at the place of faith hans joachim iwand s 1941 monograph the righteousness of faith according to luther is an important contribution to contemporary appreciation of luther s theological significance for today although iwand wrote his study three decades after the beginning of the luther renaissance it nevertheless developed some of the central insights of luther scholarship during that period two concepts in particular promise and simultaneity are crucial to an appreciative understanding of luther s doctrine of justification the language of promise presents justification to the believer as a reality that has yet to arrive or is hidden under present reality and the language of simultaneity attests that humans remain throughout their lives one in the same sinner and saint this beautiful translation by randi h lundell makes it down to earth presentation of the doctrine at the heart of luther's theology at long last available to english language readers in my years in the prayer ministry i have come to discover that there are many diverse views of prayer apprehensions misunderstanding misuse of prayer for financial gain through the exploitation of seekers of help thus in many instances the object of prayer praying to god has shifted from god to faith in men who promote prayer through wealth and healing ministries these men promote prayer by manipulating their followers minds as the only power to gain wealth and healing while acting as their intermediaries between them and god to receive answers to their prayers their goal however is to make money on the backs of their followers who are manipulated to believe in the so called miracles they perform for them the power and true benefits are now shifting to false miracle working prayers of course there is a place for and power in intercessory prayer no one should be made to believe that there are some special people who alone who can and must pray to god to experience his blessing the single most important requirement of prayer is faith in god when personal faith in god is absent prayer dies and the experience of the power and blessings from prayer are lost faith however may not necessarily translate into victory in every circumstance what acts of faith do guarantee is that we will please god and eventually be rewarded by him the purpose of this book the prayer of faith praying with hope is to help everyone who prays to understand that prayer is first building a relationship with god through jesus and not just to receive or see miracles it explains that anyone who exercised faith in jesus can literally move the mountains in their lives if they prayed and prayed the right way faith treats things hoped for as a reality with a conviction that what is being asked for has a real answer faith is therefore mandatory for those who approach god faith is never easy it wasn't meant to be so but the more convinced we are of the reality of an all good all loving all powerful god the more our trust will grow and the least we will be overwhelmed by doubts and temptations how strong is your faith as thou has believed so be it done unto thee discover the secret the power and joy of praying by faith to move your mountains as you read on the power of faith first i thank my god through jesus christ for you all that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world for god is my witness whom i serve with my spirit in the gospel of his son that without ceasing i make mention of you always in my prayers for i am not ashamed of the gospel of christ for it is the power of god unto salvation to everyone that believeth to the jew fi rst and also the greek for therein is the righteousness of god revealed from faith to faith as it is written the just shall live by faith so then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of god god is faithful by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his son jesus christ our lord because the foolishness of god is wiser than men but in the power of god but as it is written eye hath nor seen nor heard neither have entered into the heart of man the thing which god hath prepare for them that love him therefore we are always confi dent because we walk by faith not by sight we are confi dent i say and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the lord therefore if any man be in christ he is a new creature old things are passed away behold all things are become new therefore as ye abound in everything in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all diligence and in your love to us see that ye abound in this grave also and i thank christ jesus our lord who hath enabled me for that he counted me faithful putting me into that ministry and the grace of the lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in christ jesus this is a faithful saying and worth of all acceptation that christ jesus came into the world to save sinners of whom i am chief holding faith and a good conscience which some having put away concerning faith has made shipwrecks heartfelt reflections provide a foundation for exploring personal beliefs making the meaning of faith an essential read for both laypersons and theologians alike christian theologians have historically described a saving faith in god as containing a fundamental element of belief however philosophers present strong arguments exist that we are not capable of freely deciding which beliefs we will hold rather we simply find ourselves believing things as the evidence before us seems to dictate so if belief is indeed involuntary and if certain beliefs are requisite for christian faith then how can the matter of one's salvation rest on whether one has freely put one's faith in god after explaining this objection to the christian affirmation that faith is a voluntary matter for which god will hold all people morally accountable this study in philosophical theology explores how the christian theist might respond to this objection kevin kinghorn uses experimental studies within the psychological literature on self deception to make sense of the christian idea of spiritual blindness and argues that whether or not a person wilfully contributes to self deception will hinge on decisions he or she makes either to embrace or avoid the truth as he or she sees it kinghorn then attempts to show that decisions of this type more specifically decisions to embrace or avoid the truth about god wherever the truth lies are ultimately more fundamental to the kind of relationship with god commended by the christian religion than is the question of what a person believes kinghorn's conclusion is that the christian theist can indeed rebut the objection pending against him or her but only if he or she adopts kinghorn's own account of the nature of faith which provides a sharper distinction between faith and belief than is generally found in accounts of faith within the christian tradition
