These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 13th European conference on management leadership and governance ecmlg 2017 hosted this year by the Cass Business School City University of London on 11-12 December 2017. The conference chair is Dr Martin Rich. The conference will be opened with a keynote address by Dr Helen Rothberg from Marist College Poughkeepsie, USA, with a speech entitled 'Everything I know about leadership I learned as a bartender'. On the second day, the keynote will be delivered by Dr Amanda Goodall from City University of London on the topic of 'Why we need core business experts as leaders'. Ecmlg is a well-established platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress, and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of management leadership and governance. At the same time, it provides an important opportunity for members of the community to come together with peers, share knowledge, and exchange ideas. With an initial submission of 160 abstracts, after the double-blind peer review process, there are 61 academic papers, 8 PhD papers, and 2 work-in-progress papers in these conference proceedings. These papers reflect the truly global nature of research in the area, with contributions from Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lithuania, Malaysia, Managing Tourism presents research studies that analyze the trends and information on the wide spectrum of tourism activities and industries. The book is comprised of 30 chapters that are organized into 10 parts. Part one discusses the future impacts and significance of tourism, and part two deals with business growth and development. The text also tackles governments, markets, and industries, and then discusses product concepts. The air transport competition is also explained in the book. Subsequent parts cover tourist management and technologies. The last two parts tackle the third world issues and the limits and threats to tourism. The book will be of great interest to readers concerned with the various aspects of tourism.
