please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 soren aabye kierkegaard was the father of existentialism he was born in copenhagen in 1813 he entered the university of copenhagen in 1830 but it took him more than a decade to finish his degree he passed his exams in 1840 and a year later completed his dissertation on the concept of irony with constant reference to socrates 2 kierkegaard wrote about the relation between ethics and religion and he suggested that faith was about the attempt to follow christ in his self denial suffering and ultimately in his humiliation he no longer wanted to participate in making a fool of god 3 the ethical is the universal and it applies to everyone at all times it is immanent in itself and has nothing outside itself that is its end but it is its own end the single individual sensuously and psychically qualified in immediacy is the individual who has his end in the universal 4 faith is the paradox that the individual is higher than the universal yet justified before it it is a higher position that cannot be mediated and yet it exists eternally it is this paradox that abraham believed in and it is this paradox that makes faith exist this book offers a brief introduction to the thought of four figures central to existential philosophy kierkegaard nietzsche heidegger and sartre an introductory chapter presents the basic perspective and concerns of existentialism and describes its place in the history of philosophy similar introductions are provided for each of the four philosophers followed by selections from their major works background readings are also excerpted from works by hegel and husserl no index c book news inc what is existentialism it is perhaps the most misunderstood of modern philosophic positions misunderstood by reason of its broad popularity and general unfamiliarity with its origins representatives and principles existential thinking does not originate with jean paul sartre it has prior religious literary and philosophic origins in its narrowest formulation it is a metaphysical doctrine arguing as it does that any definition of man's essence must follow not precede an estimation of his existence in heidegger it affords a view of being in its totality in kierkegaard an approach to that inwardness indispensable to authentic religious experience for dostoevsky kafka and rilke the existential situation bears the stamp of modern man's alienation uprootedness and absurdity to sartre it has vast ethical and political implications in this book only complete selections or entire works have been employed the wall existentialism and the complete chapter on self deception from l'être et le néant by sartre two lectures from jaspers book reason and existenz original translations of on my philosophy by jaspers and the way back into the ground of metaphysics by heidegger there is as well material from dostoevsky kierkegaard nietzsche rilke and camus there are already many excellent books on existentialism some of them deal with particular problem or particular existentialist writers most of those that deal with existentialism as a whole divide their subject matter according to authors presenting chapters on kierkegaard heidegger sartre and the rest thus i think that there is room for the present book which attempts a comprehensive examination and evaluation of existentialism but does so by thematic treatment that is to say each chapter deals with a major theme of existentialist philosophy and these themes are arranged in the order of the existential dialect of course each chapter is illustrated with material from the writings of existentialists from kierkegaard to camus what do you have to do to be an individual that is the question at the heart of existentialism and it informs this book's exploration of the existentialist tradition in 19th and 20th century philosophy existentialism all that matters considers each of the key figures kierkegaard nietzsche heidegger sartre camus and de beauvoir who all offer related though distinct conceptions of the task of becoming an individual david cerbone's book gives a fascinating introduction to existentialism and what matters most about it about the series all that matters books are written by the world's leading experts to introduce the most exciting and relevant topics in an accessible readable way from bioethics to future cities and philosophy to terrorism the all that matters series covers controversial and engaging subjects from science philosophy history religion and politics the authors are world class academics or leading public intellectuals on a mission to bring the most interesting and challenging areas of their subject to new readers
