unfinished austen examines four texts that jane austen left incomplete catharine or the bower 1792 3 lady susan 1795 the watsons 1803 4 and sanditon 1817 none of them published till well after her death since very little in manuscript form survives from the six famous novels these four manuscript texts offer insight into the novelist in the process of creation they also problematize the romance plot prominent in the published novels by presenting this in a nebulous or incipient state that underlines its artificiality these texts sometimes show how the romance plot is inflected by the financial condition in which young marriageable women can find themselves moreover the stories other than catharine have aroused the interest of many later writers including writers for theatre and screen who are eager to complete or to amplify them they may do this through developing the stories to some kind of d nouement perha more intriguingly however these texts induce some writers to question the very enterprise of concluding an unfinished text
