this book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in latin america from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white european exception in a mixed race region the contributors based both in north america and argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged the essays also situate argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond latin america particularly other european settler societies the collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well

a definitive study of tango in all its manifestations from the author of the classic flash of the spirit beginning with carlos gardel the argentine genius considered to have invented tango in 1917 through to hollywood s current representations of the dance thompson approaches his subject from all conceivable angles passionately argued unequalled in its research synthesis and depth and written with a revelatory clarity tango is a monumental and hugely fulfilling achievement this volume tells the story of the south americans and their history through a survey of their food culture food in the various countries differs in some ways because of cultural heritage cooking techniques and geography here divided into four zones the traditions of the primary groups indians europeans and africans and their five centuries of mixing have still resulted in a stable food culture the foods of the indians before european contact still play an important role along with other foods brought by successive immigrant groups europeans tried to establish their staples wheat and wine with little success many dishes cooking methods and food habits have survived with little modification since time immemorial students and other readers will learn much about the south american foodways in daily life today with special attention paid to historical perspective and any rural and urban differences for example in all the major cultural groups food preparation and cooking have always been women s work with the exception of the meat roast asado by llaneros and gauchos the rise of the cooking profession is discussed as well a fascinating look at the daily meal schedule includes insight in to how the european conquerors imposed their eating habits and encouraged overeating with the abundance found in the new world modern life is shown to affect where people eat as buying meals often from street vendors during the workday has become more of a necessity the survey includes a discussion of special occasions including agricultural celebrations and catholic feasts with indigenous elements the overview is completed by a chapter on diet and health covering such topics as botanical knowledge and science and an assessment of the nutritional value of the south american staples classic recipes from many of the countries and illustrations complement the narrative reference book containing brief general studies of latin america usa israel the philippines and spain covers demographic aspects and geographical aspects history politics military service religious practice the economy etc includes a directory of educational institutions trade unions employers organizations regional organizations biography etc chronologys maps photographs statistical tables
