the present volume examines an underdeveloped component in the theology of karl barth specifically the work asks how and to what extent can faith be understood as ontologically proper to the trinitarian becoming of god the work argues for an ontological grounding of faith in the becoming of god to do so watson performs an in depth examination of barth's understanding of the concept of faith using barth's threefold movement of revelation the work contends god can be thought of as the subject glaubender predicate glaube and object geglaubte of faith barth's theological exposition of jesus as subject and object of election offers a promising proposal for how faith is ontologically understood at the same time the argument brings to the fore a crucial component of barth's theological program namely the concept of recognition anerkennung god's recognizing faith is then conceived as the condition of the possibility of human faith drawing on barth's entire oeuvre watson offers an understanding of the divine becoming of faith that opens possibilities for thinking systematically about the realization of the corresponding human faith classics of western spirituality in one of the only english translations available here are the mystical visions of maria maddalena de pazzi 1566 1606 one of the most original woman mystics of the renaissance however until now she has curiously been neglected by scholars of christian history and italian literature alike editor and translator armando maggi rectifies this in an utterly fascinating volume of the classics of western spirituality soon after entering a convent in florence where she spent all of her adult years in strict enclosure maria maddalena experienced visions in which she spoke to the trinity in particular to christ she did not intend to communicate these to an outside audience and they were transcribed by her fellow nuns maggi offers readers here a selection from the whole corpus of maria maddalena's visions as contained in the manuscripts the forty days the dialogues revelations and knowledge and the probations unlike most other mystical works in the western tradition maria maddalena's visions have a distinctly oral nature maria maddalena's mysticism lies in her interpretation of oral language she believed that god wanted her to speak his being
